"i am so glad and very merely my fourth will cure
the laziest self of weary the hugest sea of shore

so far your nearness reaches a lucky fifth of you
turns people into eaches
and cowards into grow"

e. e. cummings

to your cheerfulness, graciousness, genuine concern, and to the image you present, which we all wish to emulate, we dedicate this shield.

george warner taylor

with his sermons in chapel and active participation in our classes, mr. taylor has maintained an academic as well as a personal interest in each of us. through his attempts to unite annie wright as a true community, he has stressed the boarder-day student relationship and has relaxed the atmosphere with informal talks in study hall and deep sympathy for the individual. what he has contributed will not leave with him; his influence will remain.

board of trustees

the board has displayed considerable concern and devotion in directing the business transactions and school policies.

administrative committee

the administrative committee, under the supervision of mr. taylor, has initiated a new concept in school governing. with the belief that the community must be perpetuated, the committee finds its rulings for the general good. boarding life has been brightened with reprieves such as long weekends, late lights, and other privileges.

mrs. v. e. crowe

mrs. crowe has been a friend and representative of the seminary during the administrations of miss wilson, miss jenkins, and mr. taylor. in describing the work done in the school by mrs. crowe, we hope that you will think of her as mr. taylor does, when he speaks of her as a saint. under miss wilson, mrs. crowe joined the public relations staff, serving in this capacity until nineteen forty-five, when she retired to care for her family. during miss jenkins' administration, she was asked to return. since then mrs. crowe has given more of her time, capability, and aid in teaching religious education and sewing to the lower school, advising raynor guild, and acting as an official chaperone and housemother. in this yearbook, the student body wishes to communicate its love for this devoted and refined lady.
